

QUIZ ON TIMING.

1. Which eye is the receiver? Why is this important to know?
2. The life of the battery can be extended by turning the timers off during course changes and walkthroughs. True or false?
3. Why is it recommended that the collapsible tunnel not be used as the last obstacle?
4. The start timer should be placed in front of the first obstacle, true or false?
5. Why should you use short standards when using timers at the start of a course on tunnels?
6. Why should a long jump not be used as the last obstacle on a course?
7. What can go wrong if bright sunlight shines into the receiver eye of the timers?
8. What indicator is there that the timers batteries will soon need replacing?
9. What do you need to do if the dog passes two or more times through the start eyes?
10. What do you need to do if the dog passes two or more times through the finish eyes?
11. Poor alignment is the most common problem so how can you make sure the eyes are properly aligned?